The first system of the piano score consists of two staves. The right hand (treble clef) begins with a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand (bass clef) provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. A dynamic marking of mf is placed above the right hand in the seventh measure. A long horizontal line with a hairpin crescendo symbol spans the bottom of the system, starting from the fourth measure and ending with the mf marking.

Pno.

The second system continues the piece with similar rhythmic patterns. The right hand features more complex eighth-note figures, and the left hand maintains its accompaniment. The system concludes with a final chord in the right hand.

Pno.

The third system introduces dynamic and tempo changes. The right hand has a rall. marking above it in the third measure, and the left hand has a rall. marking below it. The system then transitions to a f dynamic in the fourth measure, followed by a mf dynamic in the sixth measure. A long horizontal line with a hairpin crescendo symbol spans the bottom of the system, with a hairpin decrescendo symbol at the end.
